Dear Partners:

This letter is to officially inform you that starting immediately, Paragon Vision Sciences – a proud member of CooperVision Specialty EyeCare – recognizes AkaMed Expert Co. as its sole distributor of Paragon CRT® 100 Contact Lenses for the Russian Federation.

Paragon Vision Sciences, Inc. is regarded worldwide as an industry leading manufacturer of both specialty contact lenses and premium grade, oxygen permeable contact lens materials. Paragon CRT® 100 Contact Lenses (a Class III medical device) are considered the lens of choice by eye care professionals in over 50 countries.

Paragon carefully selects its strategic distributor partners based on several key criteria including:

- Strong business ethics and integrity
- Consistently high standards of performance
- Meeting obligations and promises
- A shared commitment to education and training for both Doctors and Optometrists
- Dedication to improving the logistics of products and supplies

AkaMed Expert Co. meets or exceeds our standards for all the above.

As myopia increases at epidemic rates, the partnership between Paragon and AkaMed Expert Co. aims to bring the life-changing benefits of Ortho-K and Paragon CRT® 100 overnight vision correction to the Russian Federation. We plan on accomplishing this through:

Education and Training

- Access to Paragon's Education and Training Academy which currently provides world class learning resources for fitters around the world
- Partnership with the industry's most respected leading key opinion leaders
- The support of clinical research and trials at the finest universities and clinics

Marketing Support

- The creation of marketing resources specifically for your market to drive high levels of patient awareness and interest in Paragon CRT®.

Clinical Leadership

- Participation in scientific conferences, round table meetings and master classes.

The Russian Federation is a key market for Paragon and represents an area we view as having significant potential both today and for many years to come.

You have my commitment that we will work closely with AkaMed Expert Co. to support your growth. At Paragon, we know when we partner with eye care professionals like yourself, we don't just change vision, we change lives.

Sincerely,

Rich Jeffries
President
